Publications

Architectural Studies

Human Development & Family Studies

School of Social Work

Textile & Apparel Management

Presentations

Architectural Studies

Human Development & Family Science

School of Social Work

Peters, C. M. Evidence-based supports for foster youths, Missouri Children’s Division Older Youth Summit, Springfield, MO (June 2015).

Peters, C. M. The state as parent to young adults in care: Challenges, successes, and what’s ahead (Keynote), Seventh Annual Child Welfare Conference, University of Nebraska-Kearney, Kearney, NE (April 2015).

Peters, C. M. Innovations in Writing Intensive Teaching, Campus Writing Program, University of Missouri (September 2015).
Peters, C. M. Foster Youth Transitioning to Adulthood: The National Landscape Children’s Division Older Youth Summit, Joplin, MO (October 30, 2015).

Accomplishments

Faculty

Jung Ha-Brookshire, Textile & Apparel Management, received the Lectra Innovation Award for Research at the 2015 International Textile and Apparel Association Conference. The Lectra Innovation Award for Research is awarded to the author(s) of the highest jury ranked research paper on the application of technology in the apparel industry. Dr. Ha-Brookshire also received the Best Paper Award – Poster Track at the 2015 Korean Society of Clothing and Textiles Fall Conference.

Kerri McBee-Black, Textile & Apparel Management, received third place in the Rutherford Teaching Challenge at the 2015 ITAA Conference.

La Greta Hudson, Nutrition & Exercise Physiology, was awarded the Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Region 2 for her work in the Coordinated Program in Dietetics. She will honored at the NDEP Region 2/5 meeting held in Memphis, TN from March 31 – April 1, 2016.

Clark Peters, Assistant Professor in the School of Social Work, was named a 2016 Fellow for The Society for Social Work and Research. This award honors those that work to advance, disseminate, and translate research that addresses issues of social work practice and policy and promotes a diverse, equitable and just society.

Staff

Elizabeth Miller, Grant Writer in the College of Human Environmental Sciences, Research and Graduate Studies Office, celebrated 15 years of service at the University of Missouri.

Students

Matt Richard, Nutrition & Exercise Physiology, has been named a finalist in the American Society for Nutrition’s (ASN) Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition, an event that recognizes the highest scoring research presented by students and young investigators at ASN’s Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology 2016. More than 1,000 abstracts were submitted by students and postdoctoral fellows and the Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition aims to recognize the top 20% highest scoring abstracts as finalists. Abstracts were rated by more than 200 nutrition scientists. Mr. Richard’s abstract is titled Long-Term Feeding of a Soy-Protein-Based Diet Improves Trabecular and Cortical Bone Outcomes in Low-Fit, Intact and Ovariectomized Female Rats.

Jordan Frericks, Architectural Studies junior, is a star on the Mizzou women’s basketball team that finished 21-8 in the regular season and 7th in the Southeastern Conference. She averaged 12.3 points and 7.9 rebounds per game while being named the MVP of the Hilton Concord Thanksgiving Classic and Second-Team All-SEC.

Students led by Michael Goldschmidt, Architectural Studies, are designing and assembling the bus stops for the 2016 True/False Film Festival.

Students in Dr. Laura Cole’s Studio II class, Architectural Studies, presented design concepts to the Centro Latino de Salud Neighborhood.

Aaron McMurry, Architectural Studies junior, received an applied design award at the Undergraduate Visual Art & Design Showcase Awards for his architectural design titled Lake House.

Mohammed Al Subaie, Architectural Studies sophomore, received an award of merit at the Undergraduate Visual Art & Design Showcase Awards for an architectural design titled MAKE: Steam – A Makerspace for Mizzou.